Artisans gather for charity fair

The Queens Arms' Christmas Fair will return to Corton Denham on Saturday 5th December from 10am-4pm.

Offering a unique selection of seasonal supplies from local producers and makers, the Christmas Fair raises funds for The Guide Dogs for the Blind Association, with stallholders donating prizes for a charity raffle. The Queens Arms team will also be serving mulled wine and its trademark pork pies to raise more money for the charity.

The fair is free to attend and will take place in a marquee in the pub's garden.

Stallholders include: Chocolate Arthouse – handmade designer chocolates, Deliamo – gourmet food and hampers, Dogs & Roses – handmade gifts and dog accessories, Fleur Provocateur – flowers, Flora Patten – crafts, Frank & Lusia – handpicked Polish crafts, Gold and Black Candles – beeswax candles, The Guide Dogs for the Blind Association, La Belle Maison – French collectables, Lawrence Cider – traditional Somerset cider, Mesmerising Cakes – Christmas cakes, Neal's Yard Remedies – organic skin care and natural remedies, Raggy Roux – cushions, peg bags and purses, The Sausage Shed – handmade sausages, Somerset Soux – Eastern artisan textiles and furniture and We are Bazaar – recycled boxes and pressed flowers.
