Stags' Leap at pub's game supper night

Washington State's oldest winery, Chateau Ste. Michelle, will be at The Queens Arms in Corton Denham on Friday 20th November, pairing its multi-award winning wines with the season's finest local game. Each course of head chef, Ben Abercrombie's Game Supper menu will be accompanied by one of Chateau Ste. Michelle's finest vintages, including wines from Stags' Leap Wine Cellar, its highly celebrated Napa Valley estate in California.

Diners will also be treated to a talk from the world renowned estate covering topics such as history, heritage, tasting notes and terroir.

The four course game menu will include a confit rabbit scotched quails' egg, a compression of foie gras and a tasting of pheasant, finished with a dessert of espresso cake, amaretto parfait, chocolate crèmeux and hazelnut praline. Each dish will be complemented with wines hand-selected by Chateau Ste. Michelle, which has recently been named in Wine & Spirits' Top 100 Wineries of the Year for the 21st time, making it the most honoured American winery in the awards' history.

The Queens Arms' four course Game Supper menu, including wine pairing, is priced at £40.
